Community Reviews. In Joseph Heller's novel "God Knows", the Jewish protagonist is an old man named David, looking back with bittersweet fondness but mostly regret at his turbulent life: numerous marriages, ungrateful children, constant battling with in-laws and relatives, and a God that seems to have either forgotten or forsaken him.

God Knows Lyrics: Back when I was eighteen / We used to live in daydreams / Then woke up in our twenties / Life passed us by so quickly / Said I'd put you above me / But been so busy lately / Out

Siedd – God Knows Lyrics | Genius Lyrics

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. And God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the light from the darkness.
