A unique little tea room located amongst a beautiful garden centre that I would describe as a hidden gem of Pembrokeshire! As you walk through the low key entrance you'll be pleasantly greeted by a rustic, cosy décor, the perfect setting for afternoon tea. Enjoy fabulous cakes and sandwiches all reasonably priced with friendly service.

Lots of hotels do afternoon tea in London; lots of hotels pronounce that they have the 'oldest afternoon tea in London'. But The Langham's claim - that 140 years ago it was where fashionable Londoners first came to discuss the issues of the day over a pot of tea and a sandwich - certainly seems to hold up.
