The Asterix books represent the very summit of our achievement as a literary race. In Asterix one finds all of human life. The fact that the books were written originally in French is no matter. I have read them all in many languages and, like all great literature, they are best in English.

"Asterix and Obelix were a distinctive challenge as far as pressure chambers are concerned, because they are unique on both a Norwegian and international scale," says Rolf Røssland, CEO of NUI AS. A unique project. What made this project unique is first and foremost that both pressure tanks are amongst the world's largest.
