Beyond Suffering: A Christian View on Disability Ministry ...

The problem with this view is that it doesn't really help us make sense of the grittiness of life. We get ANGRY at suffering. But where does that come from if this is just the way the world is? The Christian faith makes sense of the rawness we feel in the face of suffering because it says there is something WRONG with the world.

Beyond Suffering for the Next Generation: A Christian View on Disability Ministry will equip young people to think critically and compassionately about the complex issues that impact people with disabilities and their families, and inspire them to action. By Joni Eareckson Tada and Steve Bundy. Created by the Joni and Friends Christian Institute on Disability, Beyond Suffering is a comprehensive course that gives an overview of the theological and practical underpinnings of the disability ministry movement.
