Fully in line with the Early Years curriculum, this book provides an introduction to cursive writing, helping you to support your child's learning at home.

I have nothing against cursive writing if it comes naturally to a child so young (as it did to my DS1) but to put pressure on a 4.5 yr old seems absurd. My main gripe is that the teacher should not be penalising her for not using cursive writing on a spelling test. After reading the replies below I feel justified in speaking to the teacher ...

1. Cursive handwriting is, put simply, joined-up writing.. 'There are two different types: fully (or continuous) cursive, where every letter in a word is joined, so you don't lift the pen off the paper until the end of the word, and part cursive where most letters are joined, but not all (for example, letters following a "b"),' says Angela Webb, chair of the National Handwriting ...
