The debt snowball method is a debt reduction strategy where you pay off debt in order of smallest to largest, gaining momentum as you knock out each balance. When the smallest debt is paid in full, you roll the money you were paying on that debt into the next smallest balance.

Anyone who's filled out a life insurance application is familiar with a beneficiary form. This is where you state who will receive your 401(k) money in the event of your death. If you're married and have kids, this probably won't be a tough decision. However, this is one form people truly fill out and forget.
