This recording of Haydn's Die Schöpfung (The Creation) was made in 1999 and originally dedicated to the residents of a Swiss hospice. It's something of a hidden gem. The venerable Zurich Chamber Orchestra was remade by its conductor at the time, Howard Griffiths, into an ensemble that drew on the virtues of the historical-performance movement without falling into its excesses (although the ...

Haydn was a deeply religious man, and Die Schöpfung (The Creation) is his personal statement of faith. He was a life-long Catholic, having received his early musical education as a chorister at St. Stephen's, Vienna's main cathedral. According to his biographer Georg August Greisinger, ...
