Misc. Notes These file(s) are part of the Werner Icking Music Collection.Transposed to D major.This arrangement has a special (and necessary) violin 2b part, written especially for beginner violinists who have never played in ensembles before.

This D minor effort is one of Scarlatti's finest Sonatas and also one of his most unusual: it is really a toccata whose focus on repeated notes is said to be an attempt to imitate the sonorities of a mandolin. In addition, it makes considerable demands on the soloist with hand-crossings and other keyboard acrobatics executed at rapid tempos.
