Kay Arthur's life-changing New Inductive Study Series has sold more than 1.4 million copies. Each exciting examination of a different book of the Bible brings readers face-to-face with the truth of God's precepts, promises, and purposes—in just minutes a day. Ideal for individual study, one-on-one discipleship, group discussions, and quarterly classes. This inductive study of Hebrews reveals the assurance that Jesus is our high priest who makes intercession for all of God's children. As readers learn to keep their focus on Jesus and rely on His faithfulness in all situations, they gain a deeper understanding of God's grace and provision. Brief exercises provide tools to help readers note key words, list important insights, question and reflect on the text, and discover God's answers for themselves.

Hall of Faith is a 10 week in-depth Bible study of Hebrews chapter 11. This study features commentary and daily study questions including personal application questions.

Rejuvenate your faith through the stories of the faithful. Throughout Scripture we find countless stories of God's faithfulness—we also find countless stories of the people who remained faithful to Him. To strengthen and deepen your own faith, enter the stories of God's imperfect yet faithful people in A Great Cloud of Witnesses, a six-week bible study by Trillia Newbell. This study dives into Hebrews 11, examining the lives of Rahab, Enoch, Gideon, Sarah, and many more whose faiths withstood the tests of their days. Each devotional invites you into the lives of ordinary people who lived by faith and concludes with reflection questions so that you can consider how your story connects with those found in Scripture. By studying the great cloud of witnesses found in Hebrews 11, and others who have gone before us, you will learn to imitate their faith while clinging to the One who is always faithful as you run the race God has set before you.

Jewish Christians were under fire from their kinsmen for neglecting the Jewish traditions. Faced with hostility, the loss of jobs, and worse, many were tempted to hide their faith in Christ. Then a trusted mentor reminded them in a strong, clear letter that Christ is far superior to anything Judaism offers. This Bible study on the book of Hebrews explores all aspects of this fascinating letter. • Personal study between meetings • 19 sessions • Includes study aids and discussion questions

What is faith? Is it possible to acquire more faith? Why is it important to have faith? In this book "The life of faith" the author presents the reader with a wealth of information about biblical faith based on the lives of 16 specific biblical characters who became so popular in biblical discussions and writings that they became known as "the rollcall of faith" and even "the heroes of our faith." The interesting thing about these 16 characters is every one of them had similar problems that we have today. They all had family problems and issues. They each also struggled with sin and disobedience. In this writing we see a common thread. Each individual in the rollcall of faith had an encounter with God or a representative of God and each one had to make a decision based on the instruction from God or God's representative. We see a pattern developing that biblical faith is a progressive faith. By studying these individuals' lives and their struggles; their failures; and their sins we see how very much they are like us. They have different names; different stories and they each had a destiny given them by God that they are so desperately trying to find. All 16 of these individuals discovered their destiny and fulfilled their assignment from God. By studying these people's lives we can learn common obstacles to our life of faith and we can see faith grow. We can see faith develop as a process as these individuals begin to trust God in their lives and demonstrate that they trust God. We also see a process that as they trust God it becomes part of their life process. A life of active belief and trust in God. Is that really possible? Yes! As you read this story you will see doubt and despair turned into an active belief and solid trust as the people of God began to discover the purpose of God in their lives and walk it out deliberately. In this book you will discover and learn the same principles that these men and women walked out in their daily lives.

In the first century AD many people became Christians, rejoiced in their newfound faith and then became bogged down with ritual, doubt or peer-pressure (sounds kinda familiar, doesn't it). Hebrews provides answers for all of these problems and points us in the right direction for spiritual growth. Hebrews is really all about Jesus. God shows us that the best things he has provided for us, both in time and eternity, are through Christ. Helpful notes bring the significance of these chapters into focus, and speak clearly to us today. Geared for Growth study materials encourage: A Daily Encounter with God, Group learning and sharing, Spiritual Growth and Church Growth.

Hebrews 11 has a nickname: the hall of faith. Picture a hallway in your old school where all the trophies are stored. The best athletes make it into the hall of fame. Similarly, Hebrews 11 covers the stories of some of the best faith-keepers ever... at least, the best faith-keepers of the Old Testament! If you're looking to answer the question, "What is faith?" these stories are a great place to start. You'll get to see faith in action. This book is a character-by-character study of Hebrews chapter 11. It is a study of faith and how the faith of each member of the hall of faith speaks to the church. This study includes reflection questions that are great resources for group Bible studies.

With a scholar's mind and a pastor's heart, N. T. Wright guides us through the New Testament book of Hebrews, moving us from the world in which it was lived into the world in which we must live it again. Includes twenty sessions for group or personal study.

Get ready to make the book of Hebrews your new favorite book of the Bible with the help of Looking to Christ, an insightful evangelical study guide. You will be encouraged to keep the faith by focusing on the person and work of Jesus Christ, imitating the faith of Old Testament heroes, and putting your faith into practice in spite of the challenges and doubts you face. As your assurance of faith grows stronger, you will be better prepared to joyfully persevere throughout life, no matter what. Every lesson in Looking to Christ gives background information, asks questions, and applies the truth of Scripture with a common-sense approach that makes Hebrews accessible to all levels of Bible students. Allow yourself to be transformed from the inside out: - Fill your mind with the truth of who Christ is and what He has done. - Let your heart be inspired by the example of faithful believers. - Give evidence of faith by your attitude and behavior. Whether this is your first time studying Hebrews or your twentieth, there are always new and deeper insights waiting for you. It is time to grab your Bible and a pen, sit down with Looking to Christ, and expect good things.

Jesus, Author of Our Faith, is a book centered on Jesus and based on sermons Tozer preached from the final chapters of the letter to the Hebrews. The author's intention, from chapter to chapter, is to underscore the necessity of an active, abiding faith in Jesus Christ—only in that way can we please God. This book is a companion volume to Jesus, Our Man in Glory, which is based on the earlier chapters of Hebrews. Together, the two books examine most of the important emphases in that significant Letter. They do so in Tozer's inimitable style and with his incisive expression.

Written for two friends to study and experience together, Friendships of Faith: A Shared Study of Hebrews is an interactive Bible study that examines how Christ's sacrifice opens a better way, through His New Covenant, to live a life of faith in God. Friendships of Faith is a straightforward study of the most basic tenets of the Christian faith as outlined in the Book of Hebrews. Using folksy anecdotes, verse-by-verse analysis, questions for reflection and prayers, author Edna Ellison examines Christ's sacrifice, His New Covenant, and the life of faith. Daily lessons—five days a week over a six-week period—will encourage individuals and help friends encourage each other in their faith.

In the study of biblical stories, readers will find comfort in seeing how they, like those before them, can walk by faith and not by sight through the uncertainties of life.

In this verse-by-verse study of the Book of Hebrews, Jen Wilkin explores how God "provided something better for us" in the person of Jesus Christ (Heb. 11:40). Through stories of Old Testament heroes and practices, the author of Hebrews demonstrates how the new covenant is superior to the old and how Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of every promise. Explore familiar verses in context of the entire Bible, learning how to place your hope and faith in Christ alone. (10 sessions) Leader Kit includes: One Bible study book with personal study segments to complete between 10 weeks of group sessions and leader helps to guide questions and discussions within small groups DVDs with essential interactive teaching videos, approximately 30–45 minutes per session Card with 3 additional digital downloads of essential interactive teaching videos Wordsearch digital library and extra leader resources Benefits: Explore Old Testament stories to gain context for the superiority of Christ. Gain an understanding of the old and new covenants. Learn to place your hope in Jesus. Video Sessions: Session One: Introduction (41:54)--Jen highlights some of the main themes we believe the author of Hebrews was aiming to inspire: confidence in the faith, steadfastness in the midst of difficulty, and assurance that Jesus is better than anything the world has to offer. Session Two: Better than Angels (47:19)--Jen begins to unpack the idea of Christ's supremacy over all things, with particular emphasis on His supremacy over angels and His identification of God's people as His brothers and sisters. What a blessing we have in the brotherhood of Christ, who withstood temptation on earth and sympathizes with our weakness. Session Three: Better than Moses (39:26)--The author of Hebrews continues to show us that Jesus Christ is superior over all things. In this session, Jen teaches us how the author took on the looming figure of Moses to demonstrate how Christ is even better than one of the largest figures in Jewish history. Session Four: Better High Priest (43:54)--In Jewish tradition, the earthly high priest occupied the highest "strata" of society. Jen breaks down how the author of Hebrews introduces his original readers to Christ as an even better High Priest--One who has passed through the heavens and sympathized with humanity's weaknesses (Heb. 14:14-15). Session Five: Better Promise (37:30)--the author of Hebrews reminds his readers to move beyond immaturity to advance to the deeper matters of faith. Jen discusses that as we deepen our faith, we can better see the steadfast promise Christians have in Christ as our firm foundation. Session Six: Better Hope and Covenant (32:31)--The mysterious Melchizedek enters the picture in this week of study. As Jen breaks down the story of Melchizedek in Hebrews 7-8, we are reminded that the old is gone and the new is infinitely better. Session Seven: Better Tabernacle (31:49)--Jen talks about the Old Testament tabernacle and covenant. The old covenant was sealed with the blood of goats and sheep and the new is sealed with the blood of Christ. In the blood of Christ, we find forgiveness of our sins. He is a better tabernacle, and He ushered in a new covenant. Session Eight: Better Sacrifice (31:49)--Jen unpacks Hebrews 10, both the warning and the challenges. In this chapter, we learn that Jesus is a better sacrifice than the sacrifices of old. His death is once and for all. The author of Hebrews also challenges us with several "Let us" statements, encouraging us to live out what we believe. Session Nine: Consider the Faithful (44:44)--Hebrews 11 features the roll call of the faithful and is likely the best-known chapter in the book of Hebrews. Here, we learn more about this intentional and organized list, and why faithful yet flawed leaders such as David, Rahab, Gideon, and more were featured in this biblical hall of faith. Session Ten: Run the Race (49:25)--In the grand finale of the study, Jen details the final exhortation of the Book of Hebrews. In this last session, we learn to focus less on ourselves, and more on loving others and glorifying the name above all names.

Find Reality in Jesus Christ God's people in the Old Testament experienced only shadows of the truth about sin and salvation; their perception was dim and incomplete. But Jesus, with his once-for-all perfect sacrifice, brings the blurred shadows into focus and allows us crystal-clear understanding of God's reality. In showing us the way to please God, the writer to the Hebrews contrasts Old Testament sacrifices with the abundant, life-changing grace available in Jesus Christ. 13 sessions for individuals or groups Fisherman Bible Studyguides include: . Penetrating questions that generate discussion . Flexible format for group or individual needs .

Think you're too busy to study the Bible? And yet, do you hunger for spiritual "meat" that will help you grow as a Christian? Enduring Faith, an eight-week Bible study, delivers the perfect balance of in-depth study and manageable homework. Written in a devotional style with real-life examples, each day's reading is paired with discussion questions and space for journaling. You'll answer questions like: What's the difference between blind faith and enduring faith? How can I rest when my schedule is so hectic? How do I respond to the tests I'm facing right now? Am I trying to please God by following rules or by living by faith? Christ's work is final, complete, and perfect. You don't have to live under the bondage of a religious approach to God. Instead, enjoy liberty in Christ through a more intimate relationship with Jesus.

For those of us coming to faith in Jesus Christ from a gentile background, the book of Hebrews can present unique challenges to our understanding. Yet this rich, mysterious book holds many treasures for those willing to dig down deep. In this Bible study, author Fred Scheeren leads the way as we uncover: How Jesus Christ fulfilled Old Testament law and prophecies about the coming Messiah How all of the Old Testament from the earliest sacrifices to the tabernacle in the wilderness, and beyond points to Jesus as the Messiah The role of Jesus as our great High Priest, who still ministers on our behalf How faith and obedience work together in the life of the believer The differences between the old covenant and the new covenant If you long to understand more about how to live a life of faith that pleases God, then dive into this study and get ready for another life-changing experience with God's Word.

This 12-week study will help readers understand and appreciate how the book of Hebrews testifies to Christ's supremacy through imagery, metaphor, and Old Testament analogy.

Hebrews—written by Christians, to Christians, and for Christians—is loaded with theology accessible to any believer who wants to grasp the origin and meaning of faith. Penned at a time that was politically unstable, Hebrews targets believers who were tempted to abandon their faith and slip back into the rules and regulations of Judaism. In our politically unstable time of "wars and rumors of wars" (Mark 13:7), we can all understand the quest for stability. But there is only one source of rock solid security. Warren Wiersbe will show you that by focusing on the reality of the unseen first, an overwhelming desire for intimate friendship with God will follow. You will begin to see less with your physical eyes and more with your spiritual eyes as Wiersbe takes you on a journey, personally or with the fellowship of a group, that will strengthen your walk by deepening your insight.

A verse-by-verse look at Hebrews and what it means to have a confident faith in Christ, from trusted Bible teacher, Dr. Warren Wiersbe.

We all know that, as Christians, we will be challenged in our faith. Sometimes the challenge comes in the form of temptation. The enemy knows exactly when to target us--when we're at our weakest. And he knows precisely what tempts us most. Often, the challenge comes when the world's way is counter-cultural to God's way. We want to be accepted, and it's difficult to always say or do the right things. And, of course, we are challenged when we face trials that cut us to the bone--grief, loss, sickness, and disappointment can all lead us to waver in our belief. But God's Word gives us examples of men and women who were commended for their faith in the face of extreme loss, temptation, and challenges. Living Faith is a study of this "cloud of witnesses" found in Hebrews Chapter 11. As we explore each of their stories in the Old Testament, we learn how to apply these principles of faith to our own lives. You will discover how faith can impact your worship, your work, and your witness. You will understand how the Word can empower you to overcome temptation and grow your faith. You will learn how to apply these principles in your own life, family, and church. You will develop a strategy for handling challenges to your faith. You will gain a new perspective on church and ministry in today's culture. In this 6-week Bible study devotional, we will journey together through Scripture, grounding you in truth and empowering you to stand firm in your faith.

Applied expository guide to Hebrews—a book that shows us how and why Jesus is better than anything else. We are all tempted to drift away from Jesus, but in the book of Hebrews God gives us an anchor: a detailed understanding of how and why Jesus is better than anything else. Seminary professor Michael J. Kruger unpacks this rich book verse by verse. He explains the Old Testament background, gives plenty of application for our lives today, and shows us how Jesus is the fulfillment of all God's work on earth. He encourages us to live by faith in Jesus—the only anchor for our souls. This expository guide can be read as a book; used as a devotional; and utilized in teaching and preaching.

Gain a stronger grasp of the principle of faith, of the better covenant, and of the best Master you could ever hope to follow by reading Warren Wiersbe's commentary and study of Hebrews.

No portion of Scripture deals more clearly with the vitality of faith than Hebrews 11. This chapter is to faith what the thirteenth chapter of 1 Corinthians is to love, writes Richard Phillips. Hebrews 11 is the work of a master teacher and loving pastor who is convinced that the fate of his readers hinges on their faith. Like the first audience of the Book of Hebrews the church today faces mounting opposition—even persecution—and the danger of falling away from the truth. Faith Victorious opens the fascinating world of Old Testament men and women whose vision of a sure hope beyond their struggles led them to acts of great courage. It likewise calls us to persevere in faith and to spur each other on to love and good deeds. Rick Phillips combines in one person an extraordinary range of gifts and experiences: disciplined military training and teaching, deep personal commitment to Christ, a well-grounded understanding of Scripture, and a powerful enthusiasm for the spread of the gospel. Together these qualities leave a distinctive mark on his work.—Sinclair B. Ferguson
