In December 2018, California Association of REALTORS® (CAR) released several new forms that brokers and real estate agents can use to simplify their operations. In addition, there were revisions released for several CAR forms, that impact how real estate transactions may be conducted. There are more forms and revisions coming down the pipeline, likely to be introduced in the Summer of 2019 ...

The California commercial lease agreement is a document used to lease a property to a tenant requiring a retail, office, or industrial space. Often a landlord will not see rent payments until the business in question has begun generating sufficient income. For this reason, it is wise of the landlord to research the business prior to drafting a lease agreement.

This form has been approved by the California Association of Realtors® (C.A.R.). No representation is made as to the legal validity or adequacy of any provision in any specific transaction. A real estate broker is the person qualified to advise on real estate transactions. If you desire legal or tax advice, consult an appropriate professional.

The California standard residential lease agreement is structured around a one (1) year term, in which the tenant is legally bound to pay a monthly rent to maintain residency. It is highly recommended that the landlord conduct a background check on any applicant (See the Rental Application), due to information that can be uncovered that could sway the landlord's decision on accepting the new tenant.
