"I'll Give You the Sun is a dazzling mirror." — The New York Times "Sun is so much more than just another teenage love story with Real Life Themes; it's a meditation on life, art, family, fate, and how even the most broken people can help fix one another.

I'll Give You the Sun is a unique book in the sense that not only does the narrator switch back and forth between the two main characters, but the timeline alternates along with the narrator. Jude and Noah's voices are so different yet complementary. They push the plot along, keeping the reader guessing until the big reveal at the end of the book.

I read "I'll Give You the Sun" when it was released back in 2014, and I still can't write a proper review for it. So I'll just keep it short and to the point. This little beauty right here is the BEST YA novel I've ever read (and I've read a lot of them).

I'll Give You the Sun is an intricate novel in which the characters' lives are interwoven in unexpected ways. For example, when Jude learns that her mother and Guillermo were secretly in love, she's blown away.
