Hello, my Great-grandfather was James Callaghan (changed to Callahan in America.) US Census records note that he was born in FEB-1868 and emigrated to America in 1885. He lived in Philadelphia, PA and is buried with a John Sweeny outside of the city. My grandmother also told me that her Callahan's were from Donegal. Based on my research, it looks like his parents were Manus and Susan ...

My name is Pat Davison and I remember Callahan from many years ago! In 1956 my father brought us through there on a vacation to Disneyland. (I remember the old gold dredge that was still there in the river). It seems that dad was in the C.C.C.'s there from 1934 to 1935 at Camp Callahan!

Annice Callahan was born on February 15, 1945, in Fairborn, Ohio, to John Gualbert Paul Callahan and Marie Bernadette Callahan. She was one of four children, with two sisters and a brother. After graduation from Barat College in 1966, where she earned a bachelor's degree in Theology, Philosophy, and French.
