Justice Redeemed is a legal thriller, but most of the story is post conviction of the lead character, Darren Street. Darren is a successful criminal defense attorney in Knoxville, TN who finds himself convicted of a murder he did not commit. The story is well researched, in my opinion.

Justice Redeemed book by Scott Pratt - ThriftBooks

In Justice Redeemed Street embarrassed a crooked prosecutor and finds himself convicted of a murder he did not commit. There is likely a lesson all should learn from this novel: a dishonest or partisan federal prosecutor who goes after a citizen can and will find a way to ruin that person's life.

The main protagonist, Darren Street, is one of the most unlikeable heroes in any book I have read. He perpetrated senseless violence, was self-obsessed, arrogant, remorseless when he did perpetrate violence, caused emotional pain to his son and exhibited narcissistic qualities with the women in his life.
