New York: Simon & Schuster, 1964. A very nice copy of a book that has become quite hard to find. Selections from a lifetime of food writing by Ludwig Bemelmans. First printing- an increasing rarity . "His lifetime love affair with the art of dining- in his own words and his own pictures, from behind the scenes and at table".

Here is the best of Bemelmans on the subject he loved most: la bonne table. The entrancing memories and charming pictures assembled here transport the reader behind the scenes of the great hotels of Europe and America including the immortal Hotel Splendide and such restaurants as the Tour d'Argent in Paris and Le Pavillon in New York.
