I haven't run across a better book for my students to practice their listening with. It uses actual NPR and other radio network shows for listening practice, and has great exercises for vocab development. For advanced students only. However, I'd recommend the other NorthStar books for students of lesser ability.

NorthStar is a five-level integrated skills series for language learning. The series is divided into two strands: listening/speaking and reading/writing. There are five books in each strand, taking students from the high beginning to advanced levels. The two strands at each level explore different aspects of the same contemporary themes.

Carol is the author of a number of series, and a series editor for NorthStar. Dr. Frances Boyd. Dr Frances Boyd has been at Columbia University teaching language and mentoring teachers for many years. She has developed and taught courses in all levels of academic English, English for Business Purposes, English for International Teaching Fellows ...

The best-selling NorthStar series (Series Editors: Frances Boyd and Carol Numrich), now in its Second Edition, offers two strands: a reading and writing strand and a listening and speaking strand. Both strands stimulate students' imagination, encourage critical thinking, and promot. Explore fascinating content while building language competence and critical thinking skills.

The approach to critical thinking in both the Reading/Writing and Listening/Speaking strands challenges students to move beyond basic comprehension to higher-level analysis. Conceptualized to promote critical thinking, NorthStar infuses analysis, synthesis, evaluation, and application throughout every lesson, not just in a critical thinking section like in other series.
