Numerical Linear Algebra

The main topics of Numerical Linear Algebra are the solution of different classes of eigenvalue problems and linear systems. For the eigenvalue problem we discuss different classes. (a) The standard eigenvalue problem: For a real or complex matrix $A \in \mathbb{C}^{n \times n}$, determine $\lambda \in \mathbb{C}$, $x \in \mathbb{C}^n$, such that $Ax = \lambda x$:

In addition to discussing established solution techniques, open problems will also be presented. The course assumes familiarity with linear algebra and will involve a reasonable amount of programming in MATLAB. During the second part of the course we will concentrate on numerical methods for solving ordinary differential equations.

"Jim Demmel's book on applied numerical linear algebra is a wonderful text blending together the mathematical basis, good numerical software, and practical knowledge for solving real problems. It is destined to be a classic." -Jack Dongarra, Department of Computer Science, University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

I will specify the problem sets each week, and collect the solutions one week later. The assignments will have both theoretical and computational questions. The preferred language of this class (and of numerical linear algebra, in general) is MATLAB ®. Homework will be graded, and will represent 50% of your final grade.
