Planetary Interaction. There are a lot of guides written on this topic, I know - I've been reading them. So why one more? This is intended to be an absolute beginners' guide to setting up a simple high-sec colony which harvests a single resource and processes it.

Planetary Interaction (PI) can seem somewhat complex but once colonies are set-up it can be a lucrative income for players. Setting up colonies on planets is well covered in the series of 'Flight Academy' tutorials. EVE Online: Flight Academy 10.4K subscribers

Planetary Interaction marks the first step in connecting EVE to the upcoming game Dust 514. The basics of Planetary Interaction are very simple: Just as when they engage in the manufacturing of modules or ships, players gather Raw Material-which are then made into products. These products are in turn made into more advanced products, and so forth.
