Rascal Sterling North

Thomas Sterling North was an American author of books for children and adults, including 1963's bestselling Rascal. Surviving a near-paralyzing struggle with polio in his teens, he grew to young adulthood in the quiet southern Wisconsin village of Edgerton, which North transformed into the "Brailsford Junction" setting of several of his books.

Sterling names the raccoon Rascal. Rascal got a new home near Sterling's house five feet above the ground in a red oak tree, and they began to have many adventures together. During his first fishing expedition, Rascal caught a minnow from Sterling's pond. The next day Sterling gave Rascal his first sugar lump.
