WTORZY - NELSON MOONEY

History. Read Easy was founded in 2010 by Ginny Williams-Ellis. As a literacy tutor at Dorchester Prison, Ginny was responsible for running the Shannon Trust 's prisoner-to-prisoner reading programme and saw for herself how a confidential, one-to-one approach could encourage people to come forward for support and successfully learn to read. It became clear that there was an urgent need for a similar scheme in the wider community.

BBC - History - British History in depth: The Domesday Book

This study of the history of reading goes from the earliest examples of the clay tablets and cuneiform of ancient Mesopotamia and Egypt via the invention of printing in the 15th century to the birth of a mass reading public and today's digital revolution. It argues that it is the demands and expectations of the reader, acting alongside the creative will of the writer, that is the evolutionary motor of literary forms and genres.
