This book is "packed full" of true episodes and events that I've experienced since I have been an Apostle. It is a "true" and "exciting" story, and it describes "real" experiences, and "real life" adventures, that I experienced "while" in service to The Lord, and it "also" describes communications between him and I. If you want to find out what God is like, "this book", will provide that for you, it will tell you a lot about him, and maybe you can get to know him, "or", get to know him "better", which ever may be the case. It will "also" tell you a lot about Satan, and how he works, it will give you a lot of information about him that "you need to know", because he "is" real, and he "is" around, I can "defiantly" attest to that. The Bible says that he "roams the earth" as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour, and he has many different ways of doing that, he has been around a long time and he knows what he is doing. I feel sorry for the little ones, the world is like a jungle, with it's "snares and traps" just waiting for them as they get "old enough" to encounter them. Satan really worked hard to stop me from writing this book, and I think it is because he don't want the truth known. So please read, and experience a "deeper" insight into the "two powers" that rule The Universe. "War with Satan" is a very "inspiring", and "exciting" book, I hope you enjoy it!

"A small mountain community in the French Alps is roused to terror when they awaken each morning to find yet another of their sheep with its throat torn out. One of the villagers thinks it might be a werewolf, and when she's found killed in the same manner, people begin to wonder if she might have been right. Suspicion falls on Massart, a loner living on the edge of town"--Publisher website (April 2007).

Do you have questions in regard to spiritual warfare? What is it exactly, and how does it impact our lives? Trusted pastor and best-selling author Dr. David Jeremiah brings clarity to the complex topic of spiritual warfare. From his years of teaching on this subject, Pastor Jeremiah has selected answers to your pertinent questions concerning victory in the spiritual realm.

When anyone acts in accordance with the devil, they become of a "devilish quality," (John 6:70). When Christians are enticed by the devil, they are pulled away from God by honors, profits, pleasures, or whatever the devil uses to hinder their profiting by the Word, (Luke 8:12). These wicked spirits have such a heinous effect on the world, that the same condemnation that will befall them, will befall those who follow them. The proud fall into the condemnation of the devil, by means of pride and high mindedness they too will be cast into hell fire, in the same manner as the devil will be. In consideration of such vile and wicked practices following the devil and his practices, Gifford directs the reader to resist such assaults and submit before God with the weapon of steadfast faith. His text is a famous one, "Be sober and watch: for your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist steadfast in the faith," (1 Peter 5:8-9). Gifford expounds on how the Apostle Peter, 1) begins with an admonition or exhortation by which he stirs up all the faithful to sobriety and watchfulness with these words, "Be sober and watch," 2) why it is important to move all men into this position of sobriety and watchfulness, seeing they have such a terrible and cruel adversary who continually seeks their eternal misery and destruction, "For your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion walketh about, seeking whom he may devour." And, 3) teaching how Christians shall withstand him, overcome him, and put him to flight, that so they may escape from his cruel tyranny, "Whom resist steadfast in the faith." This is an exceedingly helpful work, that will arm the Christian in due manner to fight steadfastly in the power of Jesus Christ through his Spirit against the works and wiles of the devil. And Gifford will not only show how to do this, but how to do it effectively, with victory, through true Christian faith empowered by God's Christ.

We should serve God by using our gifts, talents, and other resources to add value to the lives of others to the glory of the Lord. It is very important for us to strive with all our might to offer excellent service to God in whatever capacity and do so with cheerful hearts. Everything we do in the service of God, plus how we do it, decides the level of honor and influence we will enjoy in our destinies. I believe it also determines the level of divine favors we will walk in here on earth. Serving in excellence is our highway to honor and distinction. "If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honor" (John 12:26). The main point, however, is that it is not enough just to serve God. Your service must be of a level of excellence. Nothing less will do. Service to God is commendable, but that is not enough. Your service must be honorable. In this way, your gifts and offerings must honor him. "Therefore the LORD, the God of Isreal, declares: 'I promised that your house and your father's house would minister before me forever.' But now the LORD declares: 'Far be it from me! Those who honor me I will honor, but those who despise me will be disdained'" (1 Samuel 2:30). If you cut corners in carrying out divine assignments, don't expect the best from God. Have a big heart for God. "The temple I am going to build will be great, because our God is greater than all other gods" (2 Chronicles 2:5). If you want to experience the glory of God in your life, go all out in your sacrifices. Be an extremist in your excellence service to him.

Be sober; be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. Nkjv If the devil is walking about seeking whom he may devour, it therefore means the devil is not omnipresence. The only authority that has that attribute is God. The devil does not have the power to devour everybody most especially the born again child of God, he only has power on those that gives him the privilege. But let me sound a note of warning to the believers, the bible says "the devil moves around like a roaring lion", he is not the real roaring lion, but just mimicking the real lion. We all know that Jesus is the real roaring lion; he is the lion of the tribe of Judah. Revelation 5:5, Hosea 11:10 The devil is moving like the real lion, but his mission is not to bless, to protect, to prosper and to give abundant life like the real lion, his mission is to kill, to steal, to destroy and to devour. JOHN 10:10 We should not be deceived, the devil also has moved into many churches, behaving like the lion of the tribe of Judah, but his aim is to drag many to hell. 2Corinthians 11:14 That is the reason the bible is advising us, Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. 1Corinthians 10:12 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. 2 Peter 3:17 And that's also why "THE POWERFUL FORCE OF PRAYER" is a must in our Christian walk with God.

You spend your whole life worshipping God. You're morally a good person, kind to others, and take care of your family. You know because of God's grace and mercy, he sent his only Son to die for the sins of the whole world; so because you believe in Him, you expect to go to heaven. But now imagine judgment day, and you see Jesus. He looks at you and says, "I never knew you, depart from me!" After all you've done, how can that be? You forgot one thing. There is a war for your soul! And the devil, the deceiver, is like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour! How better way to capture your soul than to trick you into feeling safe? You have been deceived by the master of deceit! So how can you avoid this tragedy? This book will guide you through the Bible for the answers! By looking objectively at what you have been taught and comparing it to what Jesus taught. You can find the answer, and you can know that you will have eternal life!

This sermon preached by Charles Spurgeon invites us to meditate on God's presence. Meet the Holy Spirit and the signs of its presence in the life of the Christians. A message to bless your life.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: 1 Peter 5:8 (KJV)

Is the evolutionary process intelligently designed? If so, why did the Creator choose such an evil-infested means to create the biosphere? What is the intrinsic nature of evil itself? Is natural evil necessary? Is evil compatible with the existence of God? Will the world's evils ever be totally redeemed? What place does humanity occupy in the cosmic scheme of things? Evolution and the Problem of Natural Evil attempts to answer these and other timeless questions by proposing a bold new conceptual synthesis that aggressively marries the tenets of modern developmental psychology to the basic concepts of classical theism. The end result of this novel approach is deeply encouraging, insofar as it places the problem of evil, as well as the general fate of human existence, in a much larger and more optimistic context than has traditionally been imagined.

The ruler of darkness? the Tempter? the Great Red Dragon? Apollyon; the Destroyer? One being is revealed to have all these titles and more - names that reveal his horrific nature? All names given to Satan, your adversary who comes like a lion "seeking whom he may devour" (1 Peter 5:8). Today, many question and even mock the very existence of Satan, as well as the reality of evil. Even in the Church, by and large, there are few biblical resources on the subject to counter the destructive claims raised in today's humanistic culture. In The Fall of Satan: Rebels in the Garden you will discover the answers to 35 captivating questions, such as: How could one created good become so absorbed by evil? Why would God, who is not evil, allow evil to continue to exist? Did sin begin with Adam or was its origin found in Satan? When did Satan rebel against God's authority? Where can the answers be found to such provocative, spiritual questions that have been asked so many times over? Carefully consider the biblical response, since it is the only completely reliable foundation for information about Satan. As our absolute authority, we must reject unqualified conclusions drawn from sources outside the Bible, such as the current ideas and traditions of the culture. No believer should be unaware of these sound answers found in the Bible.

1 Corinthians 16:13-14 -- "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all your things be done with charity." The first word we find here in 1 Corinthians 16:13 is the word "watch." Paul gave a stern warning to the church in Corinth because there were "many adversaries" lurking behind every corner. May I suggest to you today that there is an adversary that is far greater in power and influence than we could ever imagine. First Peter 5:8 challenges us, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:" Satan wants nothing more than to steer you away from God's will for your life. He is so subtle and deceitful, and he is looking for every opportunity he can to "devour" your future. 10 pages Downloadable to any device Great for Sunday School, sermon series, or personal study

Satan. The Devil. Beelzebub. Each name makes us shudder. Christians are at war with an enemy who "doth seek to work us woe," and our souls hang in the balance. Known in Scripture as our "adversary," he prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. He delights in rendering believers powerless, ruining their testimonies, and destroying their lives. These are serious threats, but are we taking Satan seriously? Are we on guard against his agenda? Do we know how to stand firm against the Prince of Darkness? Here respected pastor-scholars including Kent Hughes, Joel Beeke, and Sinclair Ferguson shine the light of Scripture on our ancient foe, identifying who he is, explaining how he operates, exposing his web of lies, and celebrating his final demise. You will be equipped to more fully understand the war we are engaged in and how you can "resist the devil" in the power of Christ.

"Our sworn enemy goes by many names. Scripture calls him our "adversary" who prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. He "doth seek to work us woe"--and our testimonies and lives hang in the balance. Yet Christians are often ignorant of his plans, power, and even presence, and are easily caught off guard. "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour." 1 Peter 5:8 Other than practicing and improving critical skills, the wisest course of action to take when facing an opponent is to learn as much about that opponent as possible. Boxers review the fights of their challengers. Coaches study game film of the teams their squads compete against. Why? It is as important to assess the opponent's strengths and develop a plan to counteract them, as it is to assess the opponent's weaknesses and find ways to exploit them. Talent alone is not enough to secure victory. We are encouraged by knowing that Satan is a defeated foe. God's Word communicates this fact to us. He is defeated in his future but has to be overcome in the present. What do we mean by this? Satan is still active in the earth. Knowing what his future holds has not deterred him from his goal - it has caused him to intensify his efforts to destroy the lives and reap the souls of as many people as possible. In fact, God's Word tells us of Satan that he "has come down in great wrath, knowing that his time is short" (Revelation 12:12). In this series of lessons, we will examine some key Scriptures that help us know more about the adversary of our souls and how to resist him. Many a strong team or individual has been upset by a weaker opponent because of not doing their due diligence in preparation. We do not want the same to happen to us.

THE ADVERSARY 1 Peter 5:8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. Greetings. Often in this modern society, a heavy weight boxing match comes along and catches the public attention. What could be more exciting than to watch two guys try to kill each other? This spectacle is usually followed by both fighters: proclaiming themselves winners and hugging each other. The greatest battle we'll ever fight won't be fought in some ring but in our mind and there can be only one winner. 1 Corinthians 15:57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. This victory comes at a heavy price: your thinking or righteousness in this world. The world represents your mind in the Bible, not a physical place. 1 John 5:4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. You know you can overcome this world, when you no longer trust in your own devilish counsel or wisdom. Now you can be blessed. Psalm 32:1 Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven; whose sin is covered "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future". You can't go back and change the beginning but you can start where you are and change the end. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. (1 Peter 5:8) In order to be sober and vigilant, scripture tells us we need to know our enemy. The more we know about the wiles of the devil and his minions, the easier it is to defeat them. The Bible teaches us how to live godly lives. It's the devil's job to interfere and to crush the things of God in our lives. Jesus was the firstborn of many brethren. What made Him different? Jesus was an empty vessel that the anointing of God could flow through. Jesus never performed a single miracle. He said himself in John 5:30, "I can of Mine own self do nothing; because I seek not Mine own will, but the will of the Father which sent Me." It was the anointing of God that poured through Jesus that spoke the words of His Father, healed the sick, and raised the dead. After Jesus died, the born-again new creatures in Christ became the brethren. We, now, are the vessels that the anointing flows through. Because of this anointing, the devil hates the born-again Christian. His attacks are unrelenting, but as Jesus said in John 17:14-15, "I have given them Thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I pray not that Thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that Thou shouldest keep them from the evil." I pray that this book can give the reader the knowledge needed to rise above the trappings of the world. God has so much more planned for his people in the Spirit! Step out!

While it's true the adversary of all that is good, righteous, and holy is making a lot of noise these days, it is also true you and I do not have to become his next meal. The apostle Peter wasn't trying to scare his readers when he wrote, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walks about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world" (1 Peter 5:8,9). At the same time, he wasn't stretching the truth about how serious and ruthless our adversary is. His objective was that we'd pay attention to his warning. Peter simply told the truth. There is a devil, he is a bully, he has an agenda, and you and I are his marked targets. Although we don't have to be afraid, we do need to be prepared.
