In 2001 I wrote a book called The Heavenly Man. It is the testimony of Chinese Christian Brother Yun. To gather background information and verify the testimonies included in the book I interviewed many people in China who were eyewitnesses to the events, as well as spending a few weeks with Brother Yun going over his story.

"The Heavenly Man" is the person who as a 16 year old boy during the Cultural Revolution became a Christian in a miraculous way and then went on from one amazing adventure to another ultimately being responsible for founding the house church movement in China. This book is a FASCINATING read and will have you telling others about it often.
