The Hunterman and the Crocodile Written by Baba Wagué Diakité A hunter and a crocodile take turns being captive and captor in a humorous folktale that teaches the importance of living in harmony with nature. An unusual and strikingly pictured tale, illustrated in the style of hand-painted ceramic tiles.

The Hunterman and the Crocodile is the humorous telling of Bamba the crocodile, and Donso, the hunterman. One day, Bamba and his family travel far from the comfort of the river and are discovered tired and weak by Donso.

After traveling across land on a pilgrimage to Mecca, Bamba the Crocodile and his family need the help of a hunter to return to the river. Bamba has promised not to bite, but once they are halfway across the river the crocodile traps the hunter's hand between his jaws.
