Principles of Catholic Social Teaching - Catholic Charities

Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church

Catholic social teaching is distinctive in its consistent critiques of modern social and political ideologies both of the left and of the right: liberalism, communism, feminism, atheism, socialism, fascism, capitalism, and Nazism have all been condemned, at least in their pure forms, by several popes since the late nineteenth century.

This is the foundation of all social teaching principles. In our society, human life is under direct attack from abortion and euthanasia. The value of human life is being threatened by embryonic stem cell research, unregulated sperm and egg donation, the deconstruction of the natural family, which perpetuates family separation and fragmentation ...

This social doctrine is a teaching explicitly addressed to all people of good will[132], and in fact is heard by members of other Churches and Ecclesial Communities, by followers of other religious traditions and by people who belong to no religious group.

The work of Catholic Charities is deeply rooted in Catholic Social Teaching (CST). Often referred to as the best kept secret of Catholicism, CST refers to a body of official writings issued by popes, bishops, and other prominent faith leaders.
