Wake up and smell the... nothing. Coronavirus affects the body in a plethora of different ways. It infects the upper respiratory tract leading to a cough and shortness of breath, it causes congestion that blocks sinus drainage passages and leads to headaches, it triggers the body's production of cytokines leading to fever and inflammation and for many people, it messes around with their sense of smell and taste.

Wake up and smell the... nothing - Cherwell

'Wake up and smell the coffee' means to wake up to the reality of life. To understand the gravity of a situation or do away with the misconceptions that are being harbored about something. On the same lines, by extension, it also means to realize something that is pretty obvious to everyone else. The 'wake up and smell the roses' is an extension of the coffee phrase, and only substitutes the element 'coffee' with that of a 'rose'.
