Why We Make Things and Why it Matters is many things, but above all, it is the biographical narrative of Korn's development from being a young kid in Philadelphia to becoming a master furniture maker, craftsperson, and founder of the Center for Furniture Craftsmanship along the coast of Maine. Throughout this journey, Korn falls in and out of love, gets cancer and recovers, opens and closes up shop throughout the northeast, spends some time in Colorado, and then comes back again.

Why We Make Things and Why It Matters: A furniture maker since 1974, he is also the author of several how-to books, including the bestselling Woodworking Basics: Mastering the Essentials of Craftsmanship (Taunton Press, 2003). His furniture has been exhibited nationally in galleries and museums.
